

HOUSE

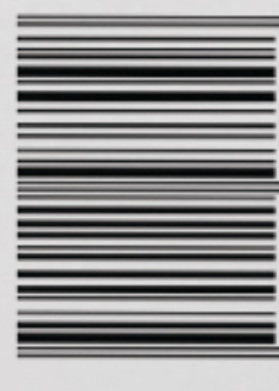

AND LEISURE

Vol. 5 : Winter 2022

retreat

find your happy place

R130 (incl VAT)

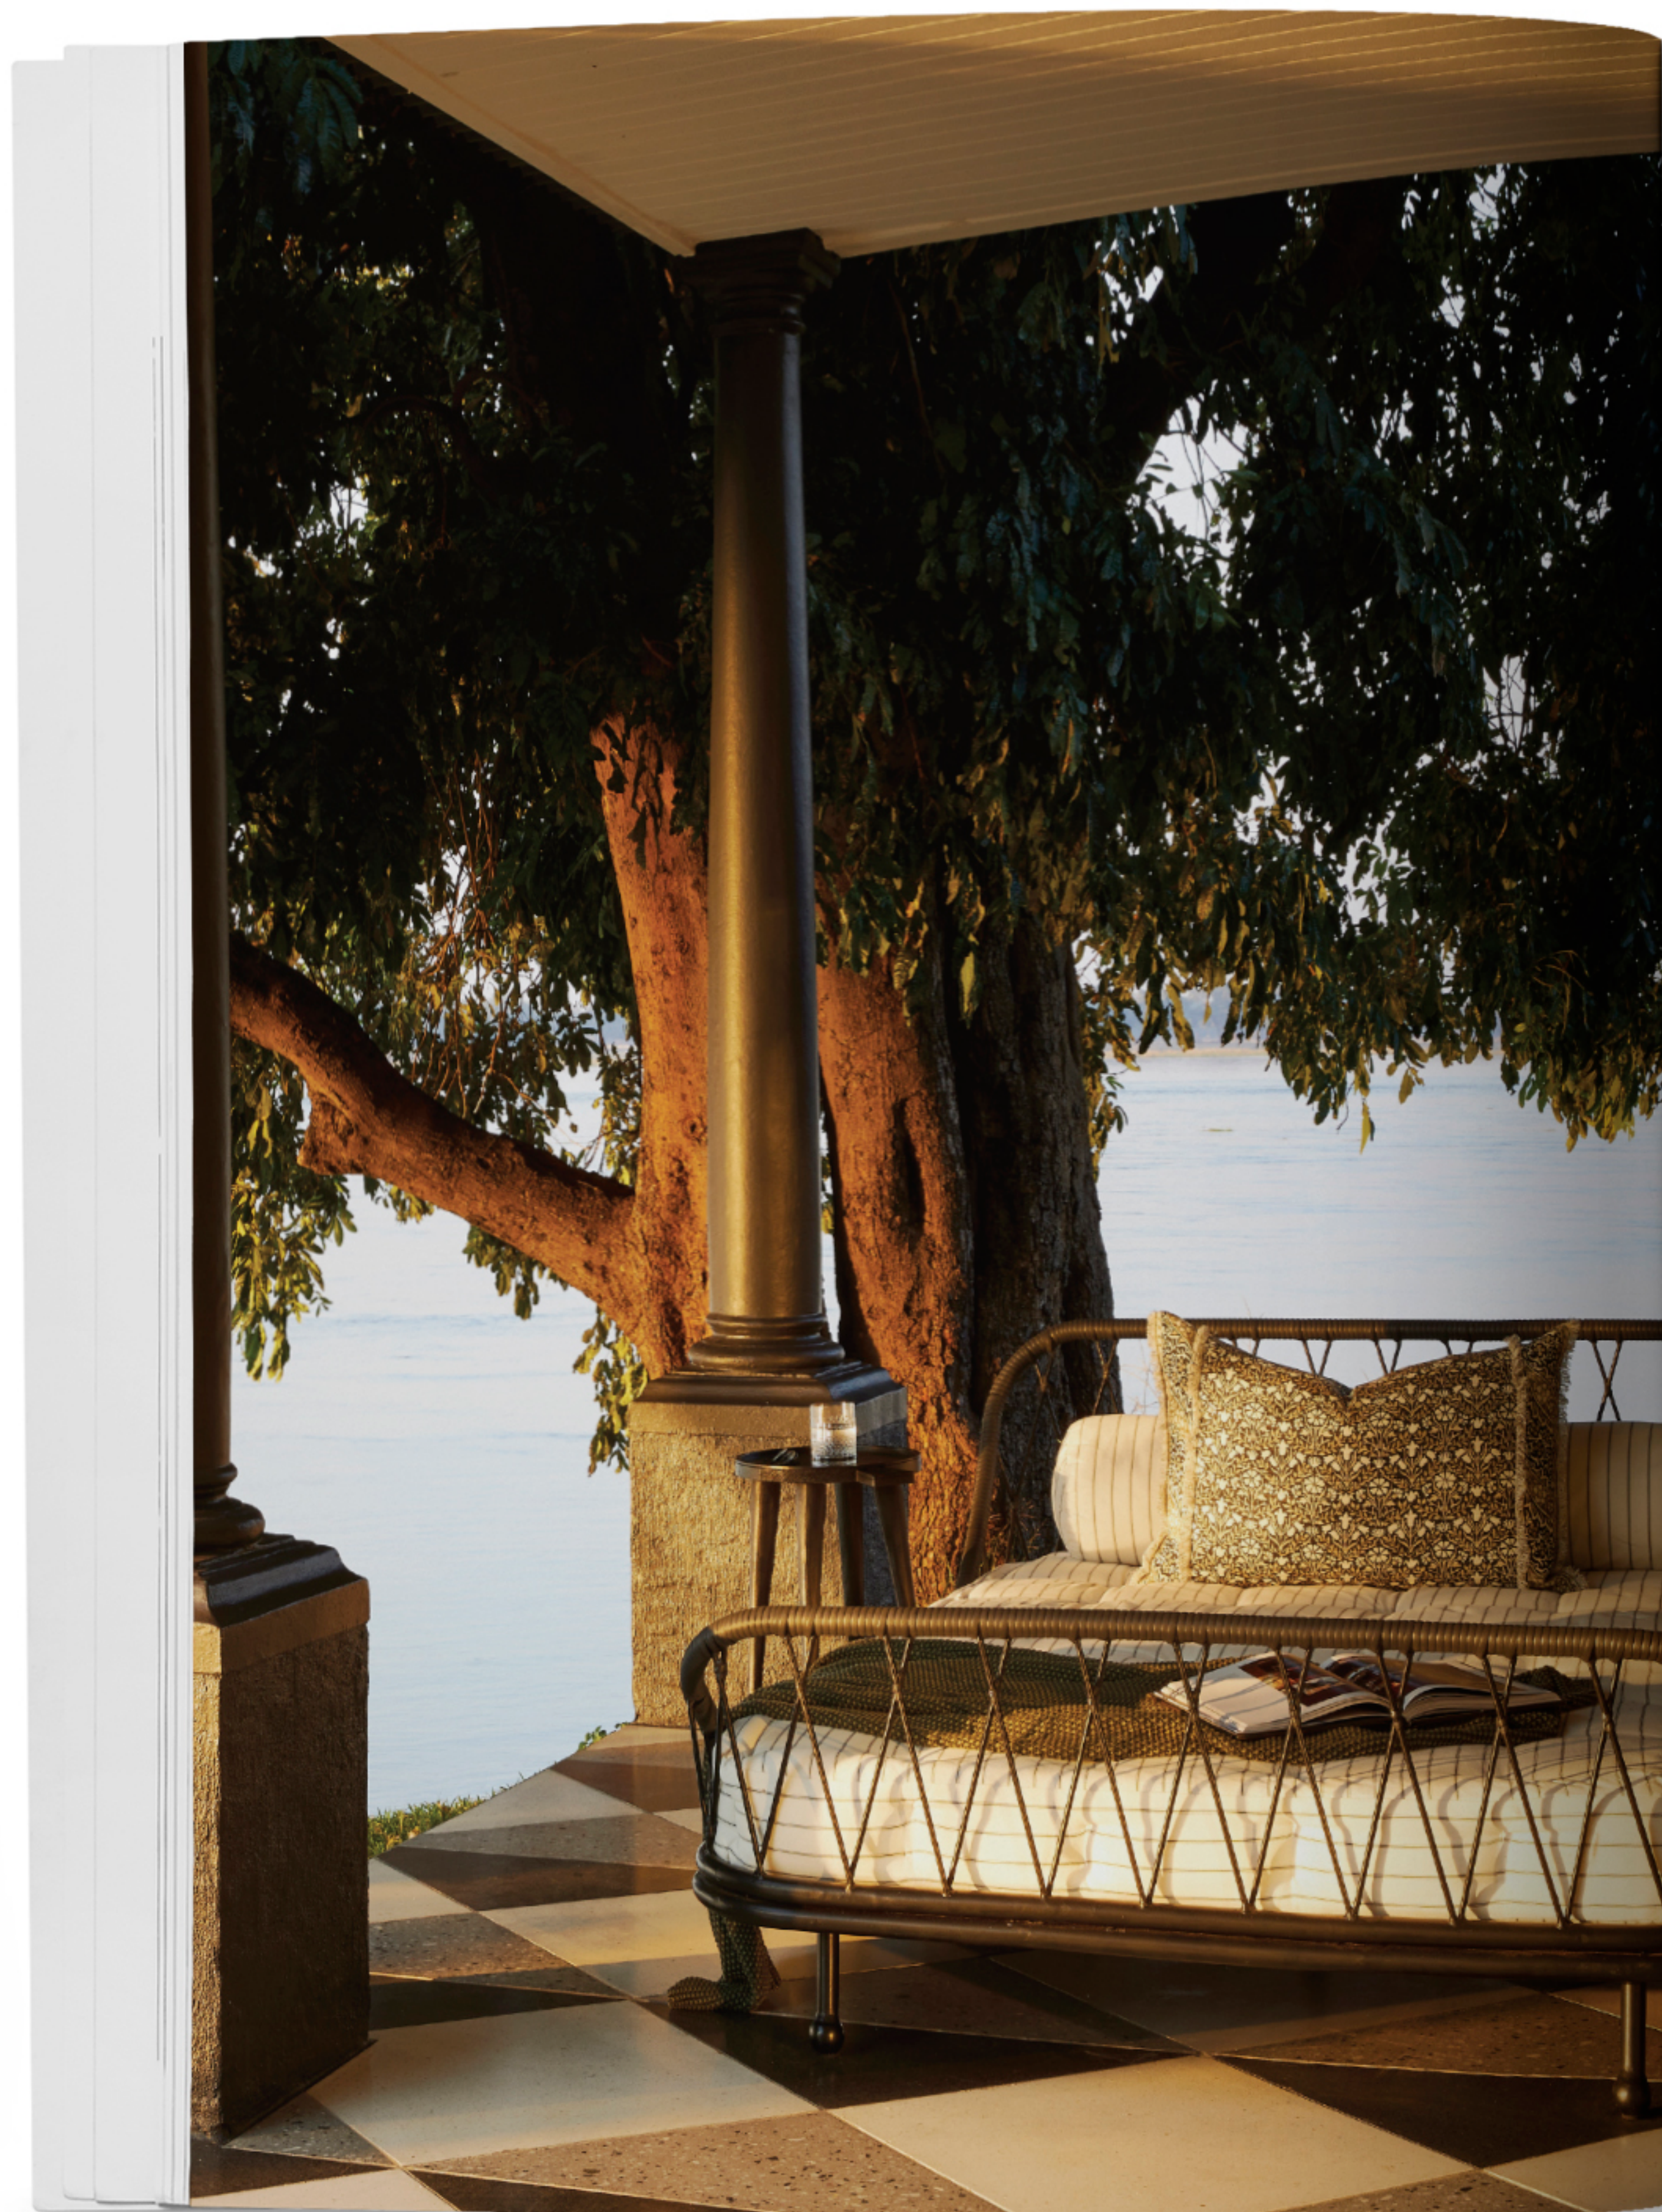

9 771021 977008

Above Targeted more towards fishing expeditions, these particular units are furnished with previously existing dining tables from the main lodge complemented by old wicker chairs that were sourced from an antique store. Right Michele Throssell Interiors', Joe Throssell, says, 'The design cues [at Zambezi Grande] are taken from the sights, smells and tastes of the landscape – something to heighten all the senses.'

LIVE / zambezi

A quiet refuge along the river: ‘The eyes never forget what the heart has seen’ – this short African proverb stares back at me from a bookmark placed next to my bed during turndown service. It’s a little detail amongst a plethora of curated moments at Zambezi Grande – and a powerful anecdote that resonates with me long after my trip is over. The luxury lodge, located in Zambia, is laced with many of these significant moments that not only make you look twice, but urge you to feel, repeatedly...

Words by Cassandra Twala Photography by Elsa Young